

Annex no. 1 to the resolution No. 69 of the Senate of NCU.

Specific terms of the recruitment procedure to the doctoral studies Academia Copernicana		Points maximum
1.	Interview conducted in English		70
	Motivation to do a PhD, to work within a specific project and description of a selected paper (or a MSc thesis, if the candidate has no publications)	14
	Project details	20
	Topic related question 1	18
	Topic related question 2	18
2.	Scientific publications		10
	Each paper in Q1-Q2 journal from WoS/Scopus (better position counts)	4
	Each paper in Q3-Q4 journal from WoS/Scopus (better position counts)	3
	Monograph/chapter in a monograph	1-4
	Other peer-reviewed paper	0-1
	Implemented patent	2
	For the first authorship: the number of points multiplied by 1.5
	Scores for particular items are summed up, but only up to the maximum.
	Confirmed by a copy of the first page of the paper or acceptance letter from the editor.
3.	Scientific conferences		4
	Talk at an international conference	2
	Poster at an international conference	1.5
	Talk at a national conference	1.5
	Poster at a national conference	1
	Passive participation (non-presenters, co-authors)	0.5
	Scores for particular items are summed up, but only up to the maximum.
	Confirmed by a certificate from the organizing committee or conference materials clearly indicating the presentation type (oral, poster) and the role of the candidate (presenter, co-author).
4.	Projects (research, mobility, artistic, exhibitions)		4
	International	4
	National	3
	Local	1
	Confirmed e.g. by a statement of the host institution, project head (with description of tasks performed by the candidate). Bachelor and master theses are not qualified as scientific projects.
5.	Prizes and awards		5
	International	5
	National	4
	Local	3
	Confirmed by a document containing information about the range of the competition/exhibition (international/national/local) and the achievement of the candidate.
	Only achievements obtained during academic education and later (e.g. high school awards excluded).
6.	Mobility (scholarships, scientific and field trips, student exchange, internships, studies abroad, etc.)		5
	Quality of the host institution or research group
	Duration of stay
	Confirmed by a statement of the host institution or head of the research group
7.	Other achievements (organization of scientific or artistic events, membership in scientific or artistic organizations, others)		2
	Confirmed by a statement by the appropriate institution, committee or board.
	TOTAL		100 points

Scope of the interview

Predisposition to scientific work, awareness of the importance of scientific work, the social, philosophical, and historical background, and the ethical responsibility of scientists. General knowledge and understanding of the selected research projects, and the theoretical and methodological background.